

EDITORIAL INTERN

International Hospitality Media is looking for an enthusiastic and versatile editorial intern to work across two industry-leading b2b websites in the hospitality sector. The successful candidate will work closely with the websites' editor to plan and produce quality content that meets the needs and interests of the readership.

DUTIES:

- Writing and uploading news stories
- Researching, writing and uploading features
- Compiling newsletters
- Attending industry events
- Social media

The role will mainly involve working remotely, with Editorial regular supervision and contact via Skype, as well as weekly meetings.

Please apply via email to george@internationalhospitality.media with your CV and links to some examples of your written work.

Read about the experiences of our 'hospitality star' interns who have worked with us.

No agencies please.